

You need to get your sports physical so
you can play
basketball in the winter.

You have a sore
throat, stuffy nose,
and a cough.

You need to get
your flu shot.

You have a high
fever of 104
degrees and you
can't stop
vomiting.

You're having trouble breathing
due to an extreme
allergic reaction.

You accidentally
touched a hot pan in the oven. Your hand
hurts really bad and
big blisters are
starting to form.

Your younger sister is climbing a tree in your backyard. She loses her grip, falls, and lands on her arm. She said it hurts really badly and you see her arm looks deformed.

Your eye is really red and it hurts. It is watering and when you wake up in the morning it is “sealed shut”. You cannot get an appointment with your doctor for a week.

You have severe
ear pain on Sunday
morning.

You followed up with your doctor after going to an urgent care center for your ankle. Your doctor does not have the skills to help you rehab your ankle back to normal.

You need to get
your teeth cleaned.

You have a large space between your two front teeth and they stick out really far. Your dentist can clean them, but does not have the skills to move them back into place. #12
